Curriculum Overview

Subject: Government and

Politics

Year Group: 12

KS5 Government and Politics is a two-year course. In Year 12, students first study British politics. This unit will focus on the growth of democracy in the UK, the different political parties in the UK, the role of the media and the different electoral systems used. This will then link to a unit on the Governance system in Britain. This unit will see students learn about the role of Parliament and the constitution in the UK. Students will be expected to link knowledge from unit 1 into this unit. Finally, the students will then study a unit on ideologies, this includes: Anarchism, Conservatism, Liberalism, and Socialism. This unit will analyse key thinkers, the main beliefs of each ideology and the evolution of the history of the ideology.

The students will undertake a PPE in summer for Unit 1 (UK Politics and core ideologies)

TERM 1	TERM 2	TERM 3
KNOWLEDGE/SKILLS	KNOWLEDGE/SKILLS	KNOWLEDGE/SKILLS
British Politics	British Government	Political Ideologies
Democracy and Participation	The Constitution	Socialism
Political Parties	Parliament	Anarchism
Electoral Reform	Role of the Executive
Role of the media	Supreme Court and the EU
	Political Ideologies
	Liberalism
	Conservatism
Skills:	Skills:	Skills:
AO1 Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of	AO1 Demonstrate knowledge and	AO1 Demonstrate knowledge and understanding
political institutions, processes, concepts, theories	understanding of political institutions,	of political institutions, processes, concepts,
and issues.	processes, concepts, theories and issues.	theories and issues.
AO2: Analyse aspects of politics and political	AO2: Analyse aspects of politics and	AO2: Analyse aspects of politics and political
information, including in relation to parallels,	political information, including in relation	information, including in relation to parallels,
connections, similarities and differences	to parallels, connections, similarities and	connections, similarities and differences
AO3: Evaluate aspects of politics and political	differences	AO3: Evaluate aspects of politics and political information, including to construct arguments.	AO3: Evaluate aspects of politics and	information, including to construct arguments.
	political information, including to construct arguments.

KEY ASSESSMENTS	KEY ASSESSMENTS		KEY ASSESSMENTS
The students undertake regular written essays in class time. They will complete a source question and topic question per topic.	The students undertake regular written essays in class time. They will complete a source question and topic question per topic. For ideologies, they will complete a		The students undertake regular written essays in class time. They will complete a source question and topic question per topic.
Regular quizzes are also set alongside revision tasks and additional reading.	comparison and key thinker question. Regular quizzes are also set alongside		Regular quizzes are also set alongside revision tasks and additional reading.
	revision tasks and add	ditional reading.	An in-class PPE paper will be sat for Paper One
Extended reading suggestions and external resources:		On Being Conservative by Michael Oakeshott
		Atlas Shrugged by Ayn Rand
The students have access to a library in their classroom. Additional		Anarchy, State and Utopia by Robert Nozick reading is also uploaded to Satchel. Some of these titles include:		The Communist Manifesto by Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels
		Reform Or Revolution	? By Rosa Luxemburg
		Clause IV by Beatrice	Webb
Representative Democracy and Political Participation:		The Future of Socialism by Anthony Crosland
The Case of the United Kingdom by Patrick Seyd.		Beyond Left and Right by Anthony Giddens
Political Participation in Britain:		The Ego and His Own – Max Stirner
The Decline and Revival of Civic Culture by Paul Whiteley.		Mutual Aid: A Factor of Evolution – Peter Kropotkin
Two Treatises of Government by John Locke		Fields, Factories, and Workshops – Peter Kropotkin
A Vindication Of The Rights Of Women by Mary Wollstonecraft		God and the State – Mikhail Bakunin
On Liberty by JS Mill		What Is Property? – Pierre – Joseph Proudhon Consul Idea of the Percelution in the Nineteenth Contumy. Pierre – Joseph
A Theory of Justice by John Rawls		General Idea of the Revolution in the Nineteenth Century – Pierre – Joseph Proudhon
The Feminine Mystique by Betty Friedan		Living My Life – Emma	a Goldman
Leviathan by Thomas Hobbes		Living My Line Little	4 V V V V V V V V V V V V V V V V V V V

Leviathan by Thomas Hobbes

Reflections on the Revolution in France by Edmund Burke

Curriculum Overview

Subject: Government and

TEBM 3

Politics

Year Group: 13

KS5 Government and Politics is a two-year course. In Year 13, the students will study Global Politics. This unit will be taught across an entire term and will see the students learn about realism and liberalism as global theories. They will then learn about the development of globalisation, the implementation of Human Rights and various intra-national organisations such as: The UN, WHO and World Bank. The rest of the module will focus on the importance of green politics, the various ways power is used in global politics, how global poverty is being address and conclude with a study on regional groups such as: The EU and African Union.

TERM 2

They will undertake two PPEs for all units.

TEDM 1

TERM 1	TERM 2	TERM 3
KNOWLEDGE/SKILLS	KNOWLEDGE/SKILLS	KNOWLEDGE/SKILLS
	Global Politics	Revision
Global Politics	Environmental Politics	Students will be revising for their three A-Level
Realism and Liberalism	Power Polarity	papers.
Globalisation	Poverty
Intra-National Organisations	Regionalism	Lessons will focus on knowledge recap, exam drills
Human Rights		and question feedback. The exact order of lessons will depend on the PPE exams and the areas that
Skills:	Skills:	need to be addressed.
AO1 Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of	AO1 Demonstrate knowledge and
political institutions, processes, concepts, theories	understanding of political institutions,	Skills:
and issues.	processes, concepts, theories and issues.	AO1 Demonstrate knowledge and understanding
AO2: Analyse aspects of politics and political	AO2: Analyse aspects of politics and	of political institutions, processes, concepts,
information, including in relation to parallels,	political information, including in relation	theories and issues.
connections, similarities and differences	to parallels, connections, similarities and	AO2: Analyse aspects of politics and political
AO3: Evaluate aspects of politics and political	differences	information, including in relation to parallels,
information, including to construct arguments.	AO3: Evaluate aspects of politics and	connections, similarities and differences political information, including to construct	AO3: Evaluate aspects of politics and political arguments.	information, including to construct arguments.
KEY ASSESSMENTS	KEY ASSESSMENTS	KEY ASSESSMENTS
The students undertake regular written essays in	The students undertake regular written class time.	essays in class time.

Regular quizzes are also set alongside revision tasks and additional reading.	Regular quizzes are also set alongside revision tasks and additional reading.	class time. They will complete a source question and topic question per topic.
PPE exam for Paper One and Two will be sat.	PPE exam for Paper Two will be sat.	Regular quizzes are also set alongside revision tasks and additional reading.
		An in-class PPE paper will be sat for Paper Three.

The students undertake regular written essays in Extended reading suggestions and external resources:

The students have access to a library in their classroom. Additional reading is also uploaded to Satchel. Some of these titles include:

Realism in International Relations – Jack Donnelly

Liberalism and World Politics - Michael Doyle

The Changing Role of The Nation State in the Era of Globalisation - David Held

Democratic Peace Theory: Theoretical and Empirical Approaches – Bruce Russett

Global Governance and International Relations – Thomas G Weiss

NATO's Evolving Role in the Post Cold War World - Mark Webber

Bretton Woods and the International Monetary System - Barry Eichengreen

The IMF and Global Financial Stability – Joseph Stiglitz

The World Bank and Development: Theory and Practice – Devesh Kapur