Packed days of activities

- Students will be engaged in activities from the moment they get off the coach until 10pm on Friday evening. They will have an early start on Saturday for breakfast followed by lessons and activities until 10pm.
- Sunday consists of more lessons and activities and finishes at about 2pm.

Revision Sessions

- Over the three days students will have 14 Maths lessons which will cover key topics identified from their last set of PPE exams, teacher assessments and problematic topics identified by exam boards each year.
- Each of these lessons lasts an hour.

Revision Sessions

- All sessions will be delivered in fully equipped classrooms.
- Students will be grouped in classes of between 7 and 10 (Foundation) and 18 for Higher, they will stay in these groups for all their lessons.
- There are 5 Maths teachers attending for the three days to ensure students receive exactly what is required for them to reach and then exceed their target grade.

Outdoor Activities – Grosvenor Hall

Extra Activities

- Students will be given the opportunity to do a variety of extra activities each day as a reward for working hard.
- They will be able to do a selection from Jacobs ladder, 3G swings and archery.

Grosvenor Hall – Ashford, Kent

- Grosvenor Hall is set on a 50 acre site which is solely used for education activities.
- It is a very secure site having previously been a Police training site. The only way in and out are through electric gates operated by a security team.

Accommodation

- Each room consists of single beds and sleeps 2 students with the exception of a couple of rooms which sleep 5 or 6.
- Rooms will be allocated to students by staff, with every effort made to put them with their chosen friends. Once allocated a room students cannot change as staff need to know exactly where students are after lights out for their own safety.
- Each room is en-suite.

Grosvenor Hall - Rooms

Selecting your room mates

You need to select 4 other students that you would like to share a dorm with.

We will try to place you with your choices but cannot make guarantees.

Students to be in their rooms by 10:30pm

Food

- Lunch and dinner on all three days and breakfast on the Saturday and Sunday will be included for students in the dining hall. Any special dietary requirements will be catered for by the centre.
- Students will be expected to eat three meals a day and are able to chose from an extensive range of food.
