

POST-16 COURSE OVERVIEW

APPLIED LAW

QUALIFICATION	AWARDING BODY	COURSE LENGTH
Pearson BTEC Level 3 National Extended Certificate in Applied Law	Pearson	2 years

COURSE OVERVIEW

Applied Law is a practical Level 3 qualification that introduces students to the English legal system and how law is applied to real-life situations. Students explore civil disputes, criminal law and the legal system, while developing skills in research, analysis, problem-solving and applying legal principles to different scenarios. Equivalent in size to one A Level, the course is particularly suited to students who enjoy discussion, debate and a practical, applied approach to learning.

WHAT WILL I STUDY?

KEY CONTENT	ASSESSMENT
- Unit 1 – Dispute Solving in Civil Law - Unit 2 – Investigating Aspects of Criminal Law and the Legal System - Unit 3 – Applying the Law - Unit 4 – Aspects of Family Law OR Aspects of Tort	- Unit 1 – Externally assessed examination, with case-study material supplied in advance - Unit 2 – Internally assessed through presentation and coursework - Unit 3 – Externally assessed examination, with case-study material supplied in advance - Unit 4 – Internally assessed through presentation and coursework

WHERE COULD THIS COURSE TAKE ME?

This course supports progression to university, apprenticeships and careers in law and related fields. Progression routes may include Law, Criminology and Business, alongside careers in the legal profession, Civil Service, public services, human resources and insurance. Students may also progress to legal apprenticeships, including routes towards qualifying as a solicitor.

KEY CONTACT

COURSE LEAD	EMAIL
Caitlan Warne	caitlan.warne@chasehigh.org